

16 February 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Executive Officer

SUBJECT : Functional Listing

1. Reference is made to your request that Personnel Security Division forward to you by close of business on 16 February 1973, a listing of items they handle which are referred beyond the Deputy Director for Support either because of Agency regulation, Agency policy, or standard operating procedures.

2. We are in agreement that as a matter of policy based on the Director of Central Intelligence's memorandum of 21 February 1970, Subject: Polygraph Program, the Director of Security is permitted to release polygraph acquired information outside the Agency only after the Director or Deputy Director of Central Intelligence has concurred in his determination that such a release is necessary in the interest of national security.

3. There have also been a number of cases in the recent past which because of their sensitivity and the possibility of embarrassment to the Agency have been referred to the Executive Director-Comptroller, to the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, or to the Director of Central Intelligence by the Personnel Security Division. Among these are included: The Watergate incident;

25X1A9a [REDACTED] and the on-going investigation of use of illegal drugs by Agency employees. Such cases are most often referred beyond the Deputy Director for Support at the specific request of higher authority.
